

FEATURED COURSE

WOODLAND MANAGEMENT FOR CONSERVATION

Eligible for Farming Connect funding in 2023-25. 80% funding.

Our Delivery Model

This is a customised award written and delivered by Nick Heins.

Lantra Awards course- attendance certificate.

Introduction

The purpose of this course is to equip candidates with the basic knowledge to manage woodland where the primary aim is conservation for nature.

Overview in brief

This course covers basic history of British woodland, woodland structure, management challenges and techniques and how they can affect flora and fauna, woodland features, management principles for conservation.

The finer details

Outline of the history of British woodland; woodland benefits; 4 tier woodland layers; effects of neglect; challenges of small woodland; Intervention; priorities; ASNW; Traditional methods of management; Invertebrates associated with trees & shrubs; changes in use by birds as trees grow; Thinning, regeneration & planting; Glades, rides, open spaces & dead/dying trees; management principles for nature conservation.

Who should attend?

Conservation Groups and Volunteers; Woodland Managers and Owners; Farmers; Estate Managers; Wild Life Trusts.

Remote delivery- Delivered regularly, once to twice monthly VIA Zoom. Register your interest, and we will inform you of upcoming dates, you book your preferred dates.

Face to Face delivery – only here at Simply The best, CF40 1SN.
9.30 – 1:30pm

Supported by a substantial 30-page illustrated handout with 14 appendices and other useful handouts.

THIS COURSE IS ELIGIBLE FOR 80% FUNDING.

PRICE FOR APPLICATION- £250 YOU WILL PAY £50 + VAT

Find us on Facebook

01443 670267

office@simplythebesttc.co.uk